THE MURRAY LEDGER.

VOL. 33, NO. 29

MURRAY, KENTUCKY THURSDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1911.

$1.00 PER YEAR.

Candidate For State Senator.

I believe in the rule of the people. They are the court of last resort in a democratic form of government. I mean by the people to include the man who labors 'neath the tobacco plant six months and hacks the remainder of the year that he might provide for those dependent upon him, the one gallus, cottonade overalls man whether laboring in the mines or workshop, as well as the banker and money changer, clothed in broadcloth, who clips coupons for twelve months in the year. I believe that the one has the same right of expression in matters of government possessed by the other, and if it can be charged that I have a preference it is for the less fortunate fellow. I would lend my aid to the betterment of his estate in life, I would assist him from the "slough of despond" and make his family the peer of none but the equal of all. Conscious and sincere in these declarations I promise the people of the Third Senatorial district, if elected to serve them in the State Senate the ensuing four years, to devote my talent in procuring for them such needed legislation as will guarantee unto them the following among other things:

FIRST.—I believe that the election of Hon. O. M. James to the United States Senate will be of greater benefit to the people of this district than the election of any other man and hereby pledge myself to vote for him for that position in case of my election. The people of this district have so expressed themselves and I heartily concur in their expressed wishes.

SECOND.—The election of all public servants should of a right be vested in the people, and for this cause I believe in a direct primary election law for the selection of all party nominees; the direct election of United States Senators, and also favor a constitutional amendment providing for the direct election of presidents by the same sovereign authority.

THIRD.—I am and have always been a strong advocate of the present county unit law, and further believe that the constitution of our state provides that it should be extended to each and every county alike. I pledge my full support to such extension, and declare that I am not hampered by a whisky combine collar and will represent my district in so important a matter. Further, I will demand of the man for whom I vote for the United States Senate that he vote and labor for an amendment to the Federal laws which will prohibit the issuing of liquor license to any person in a territory in which the sale is prohibited by local laws, and demanding the publication of the names of all persons to whom such license are granted in some newspaper published in the county wherein the license are granted. Such a measure I believe will completely destroy the bootlegger and blind-tiger.

FOURTH.—I am in favor of and will use my influence for the passage of such addition laws as will guarantee unto labor, full measure of protection; safety in the pursuit of his vocation; reasonable working hours; and unto the farmer ample protection in pooling the products of his land and labor that he might not be the easy prey of greed and monopoly. I believe a reasonable division of time to be eight hours for labor, eight for pleasure and eight for rest.

Further, I am committed to advanced educational ideas; non-partisan board of prison commissioners; inspection of state banks; the destruction of the corrupt lobby; the initiative, referendum and recall; revision of the tax laws which will compel the rich man to bear equally the burden of taxation with the poor man.

I will endeavor to vote intelligently upon all questions, and will honestly and thoroughly inquire into each measure and represent my constituencies upon all occasions. I will vote for only honest measures and will vote for such measures regardless of political influences.

I will owe my election to no gang, and WILL REPRESENT THE PEOPLE—ALL THE PEOPLE, and upon these declarations appeal to all the citizens of the Third District, irrespective of party lines or party lashes, to give me their vote and support.

O. J. JENNINGS.

Candidate for State Senator Third District Ky.

CALLOWAY COUNTY FAIR OPENS AND BANNERS AND COLORS FLYING.

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE FROM THIS AND OTHER COUNTIES ARE HERE TO MEET AND MIX WITH OLD FRIENDS. --SPLENDID RACING REMAINDER OF WEEK.

The Second Annual Fair of Calloway county opened Wednesday morning with flags waving, band playing, horses prancing and everybody feeling good.

One hundred and fifty race horses from three fair circuits promise an unusually good racing program. Every race is full.

Horses for the speed ring were entered from Colorado, Michigan, Ohio, Tennessee, Illinois and Kentucky. Ewing Haley who has been attending fairs for years says it is the prettiest bunch of horses he ever saw.

The Starnes Stock Co., band is furnishing good music and Kennedy's X. I. T. Ranch give a big free exhibition every day. Barkers make things lively on the Midway. Twenty-five concessions promise plenty to eat and drink. It has been said that more Henry county people are attending the Calloway fair than were in attendance at the Henry county fair.

It was thought that paddocks sufficient had been built but all the carpenters in town were put to work building new stables early Saturday morning. This is a big week in Murray. The biggest county fair in the state. Big tent show in the court house yard, change of program every night. Good motion picture show at the opera house, extra special for the week.

The sun shines bright on the Calloway Fair.

'Tis Autumn—the people are gay Sing one loud song for the Calloway Fair

The great big fair that's come to stay.

Shout huzzas my children, Shout aloud I say

For the good price crops and the Calloway Fair

For it's the best old fair far and away.

Representative Speaking.

The three candidates for Representative from Calloway county have agreed to meet in joint speaking that the voters of the county can meet them and hear discussion of their platforms. The candidates are Joe L. Bell, Perry Melan and Henry Chunn. Following are the places and dates meeting:

Harris Grove, Monday, Oct. 16; Crossland Oct. 16, at night. Penny, Tues. Oct. 17; Coldwater, at night.

Backusbur, Wednesday, Oct. 18; Kirksey, at night. Dexter, Friday, Oct. 20; Jackson, at night.

Tobacco, Saturday, Oct. 21; Dick School House, at night.

We direct attention to change of advertisement of the Starnes Stock Co. on fourth page. This company with a troupe of about thirty people have played all this week with change of program each night and good audiences greeted them at each performance. The music lovers have cause to laud the orchestra and band numbers as very entertaining, they have the finest bunch of musicians ever in Murray.

The company offers as the program for Friday night, "St. Elmo"; Saturday night, "Young Buffalo in New York." If you have not attended any performance you should avail yourself the opportunity to go out and see them Friday and Saturday night.

FIRST FOOT BALL GAME MAYFIELD WINS 11 TO 0.

Murray High School eleven, rooters and fans went to Mayfield Saturday to play the first game of the 1911 season.

Owing to the bad weather the ground was in bad condition and our boys lacked practice. Their head work was better than their foot work. If we had to lose we had rather lose to Mayfield than any one else for they are clean sports and fine hosts. They set 'em up to a big dinner in the dormitory and carriage rides over the city and promise us a return game Saturday week when we promise to eat 'em up and even up the score.

TO THE VOTERS OF CALLOWAY.

I wish to announce my candidacy for the Legislature, to be voted for Nov. 7, 1911. I wish to further say, this is not a matter of choice with me, but simply the demand of my party to make the race in the interest of the great common people. It has ever been me to want to serve my people in every way possible to their best interest as I saw it. So feeling that the Democratic as well as Republican party fail to meet the demand of this people and feeling the demands for a more progressive government and a party that stands for the working class who produce the worth of the world and the equivalent of what they produce and finding in the Socialist party these principles I have declared myself a Socialist and now take pleasure in announcing myself as a candidate on this ticket.

I promise if elected to stand by the people of Calloway county in every way possible. I promise further that when there is a bill under circulation that your interest is at stake I will be found there to defend you as far as in my power to do so.

I stand for the following:

- 1 Universal suffrage—the equal political right of both men and women.
- 2 Election by direct vote—the election of all officers or servants of the people by the direct and majority vote of the people.
- 3 The initiative—the privilege and right held by the people to introduce into law making bodies any measure they may desire and demand action thereon.
- 4 The referendum—The privilege and power of the people upon any measure passed by any law-making body before that measure can become a law.
- 5 The imperative mandate—The right and power of the electors to recall from office any officer who, for any reason, may fail to carry out the will of his constituency.
- 6 I further stand for the entire Socialist platform adopted by the Socialist Party in National Convention assembled at Chicago Ill., May 10, 1908, together with state platform.

In conclusion I wish to say I have no paper behind me and no campaign fund, as both of the old party candidates have, for the Capitalists do not finance a working class party campaign. Therefore I simply have those who have become class conscious and feel the demand for the worker to unite in a working class party, and of course they are poor people for they have made a living honest by the sweat of their own face, and therefore I am in the field alone except this help. I invite you to our speaking as my opponents have been nice enough to say they will meet me on the stump to discuss our platform and as it will be impossible to see every voter of the county I respectfully solicit your vote and guarantee you will never have cause to regret voting for the first Socialist candidate of Calloway and you will one day feel proud you supported me.

The WORLD'S NEWS In Tabloid Form

With the recovery of six bodies, the face of another, and a skull so badly charred that neither age nor sex of the victim could be determined, the total number of known dead in the catastrophe at Austin, Pa., stands at 88. Most of the bodies recovered were those of women.

Dr. Harry Elgin Webster, biologist and wife murderer, in jail in Oregon, Ill., for wife-murder, has been married three times, instead of two. He killed his third wife.

Circular letters announce the candidacy of Tom L. Lewis as national president of the United Mine Workers. Lewis was defeated a year ago for reelection to that office by President White of Iowa.

After a meeting between former Gov. John F. Hill of Augusta, Me., acting chairman, and William Hayward of New York city, secretary of the Republican national committee, a call was issued for a meeting of the committee in Washington on December 12.

The Italian cruiser Marco Polo arrived at Taranto conveying the Turkish transport Savah, captured off the coast. A Turkish army general, 200 soldiers, 200 horses and 5,000 rifles were aboard the captured vessel.

It is believed in London and at the great continental capitals that the war over Tripoli will not last much longer. Turkey, it is considered certain, will yield Tripoli, but will get tolerably liberal terms from the Italian government.

A merger of all large cement manufacturing plants in Missouri, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Iowa, and other states west of the Mississippi river was proposed to the directors of the Bonner Brand Portland Cement company in Bonner Springs, Kas.

Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley, hero of Santiago and retired from active service, fell dead on Forty-fourth street, near Fifth avenue, New York. The admiral had been a sufferer from heart trouble.

President Taft and William J. Bryan met at Lincoln, Neb., and Bryan welcomed the man who beat him for the presidency to his home town. All Lincoln, Democrats and Republicans alike, was out to greet the president, and Bryan's presence at the head of the national committee was typical of the attitude of the city.

From present appearances the Turkish-Italian war promises to be the shortest and most bloodless war in history. Thus far its distinguishing characteristic has been the absence of fighting and with Germany acting as peacemaker, it may be ended before fighting takes place.

The trial of Gen. Harrison G. Otis and associates on the Los Angeles Times on the charge of publishing indecent matter in the Times regarding the Beattie trial was definitely postponed.

Using several big rolls of wire as a barricade, four robbers exchanged shots with an armed posse of citizens at Noel, Mo., and stood them off, while another robber looted the Bank of Noel of about $5,000.

Dr. Harry Elgin Webster, a Rush Medical college graduate, student and interne at the Polyclinic hospital, Chicago, in a confession to the police admitted that he murdered one of his two young wives, Bessie Kent Webster of Chicago, in the woods of Ogle county, ten miles from Dixon, Ill., September 16.

J. P. Morgan, over his own signature, served notice on the United States government that the billion dollar Steel corporation, which he organized, promoted and now controls, would resist to the bitter end any and all attempts to dissolve it under the Sherman anti-trust law, as a combination in restraint of trade.

Holm O. Bruns of Sorocco has been nominated for governor of the new state of Mexico by the Republican state convention. On the first ballot he received 223 votes to 75 for Secundino Romero of Las Vegas, who immediately moved to make the nomination unanimous, which was done.

War has been declared by Italy against Turkey, after Turkey, replying to Italy's ultimatum, had refused to recognize Italy's right to seize Tripoli.

By a decisive majority, Atlanta, Ga., decided against changing its form of government to a modified commission system. The vote was 4,965 against and 2,967 for, a majority of 1,998.

Nine children of Mr. and Mrs. William Dias, who lived near Heshbon, Pa., lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the Dias home. Every portion of the building was burned and nothing but the charred bones of the victims were found. These were gathered together and placed in one coffin.

Col. James A. Pettit, a member of Gov. William H. Mann's staff, was shot and instantly killed by Benjamin Hubbard at Lovington, Va. A quarrel of long standing regarding a patient figured in Hubbard's grudge against the doctor.

Solicitor George P. McCabe was retired from the pure food and drug board, Associate Chemist P. L. Dunlap, closely identified with McCabe, was allowed leave of absence until the president's return, and Chemist Harvey W. Wiley was left apparently in supreme command of the board.

The marriage of Mrs. David Dunlop and Archibald Montgomery McCrea of Pittsburgh, son of the president of the Pennsylvania railroad, which took place at a New York hotel, is of much interest in Baltimore. Mrs. McCrea forfeits $1,950,000 by her marriage.

A heavy loss of life and considerable damage was caused in Zealand and other provinces of Holland, with which communication is restored, by the storm that broke over the North Sea coast. Two hundred and forty lives are known to have been lost in coasting craft.

An Illinois Central train bearing strike breakers on route to New Orleans was riddled with bullets as it passed through the outskirts of McComb City, Miss. Several are reported seriously injured, one probably fatally.

Mrs. Rosie E. Osborne, marshal of Hunnewell, Kas., with one woman lieutenant, arrested six members of a poker party, after laying siege to the place where they played during an entire day.

In the course of his jubilee sermon delivered at the cathedral, Baltimore, Md., Cardinal Gibbons expressed disapproval of three important propositions which have commanded public attention, namely: the election of United States senators by direct vote, the referendum proposed providing for the submission to the voters for ratification of legislative enactments and the recall of the judiciary.

Three hours of conference and discussion at Niles, Mich., inaugurated by the man claiming to be George A. Kimmel, Mrs. Estella Kimmel, mother of the real Kimmel, and her daughter, Mrs. Edna Bonnett, resulted in the utter failure of the "man of mystery" to convince either woman that he is their son and brother.

The strike on the Harriman lines went into effect and the union officials claim that fully 25,000 men walked out promptly. They say they have reported from all the principal points along the system which show that the men were eager to strike and no deserters are reported. A few strike breakers have been installed in some of the shops.

Plans for the reorganization of the American Tobacco company, to conform with the mandate of the supreme court, it was said, provide for the disintegration of the parent company into its several parts and a reassembling of those parts into three separate companies to be known as the American Tobacco company, Lorillard company and the Liggett & Myers company.

The British steamer Hatfield, from Huelva, Spain, for Rotterdam, was in collision in the English channel with the British steamer Glasgow from Rotterdam for Dundee, and sunk. All the members of the Hatfield's crew, numbering about twenty men, were drowned.

Charles W. Minard, former principal of the Marquette school, Chicago, was charged with having destroyed or hidden the last will of the late Mrs. Mattie Minard, his first wife, who committed suicide on June 11, and with having mutilated a former will which he filed for probate.

A Valdez (Alaska) cable says reports from Port Wells show that the earthquake which put the Alaska cable out of commission was much more severe to the westward than at Valdez. At Newtown the shock was so severe it started an immense avalanche and inhabitants of the town took to boats and spent the night afloat.

The Paris correspondent of the London Times telegraphs his paper that Italy would be willing to consider peace on the following basis: complete and unreserved cession of Tripoli by Turkey and indemnity of $12,000,000, which was approximately the amount paid by Austria-Hungary following the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

The steady rising of the Mahoning river and its tributaries, with the washing out of the partially completed dam at the Republic Iron and Steel company's reservoir, caused a flood in Youngstown, O., and vicinity. The property loss is half a million.

Alfred Picard, in an official report on economic conditions in France, made at the government's request, says a striking feature of the year 1910 is that France, hitherto the third nation in the world after England and Germany, ranks after the United States, although the international exchange shows a marked increase, totalling 13,407,000,000 francs.

An incident of the opening of the postal saving bank at Washington was the obtaining of the first five certificates by Mrs. Ellen L. Carter, widow of the late Senator Thomas H. Carter, who fathered the bill that provided for postal banks.

Mrs. Fred P. Farnham, sister of Gertrude Gibson Patterson, who shot and killed her husband at a sanitarium near Denver, announced that the woman would stand by her husband in her trouble.

Serious fighting between Chinese government troops and rebels has taken place at Shwangin, according to delayed advices received at Peking. Both sides lost heavily, but the government troops found it impossible to dislodge the rebels from their position.

Bowing Green $5,000 Saloon License Overturned—Court Holds That It Is Unreasonable—Death Sentence of Charles Howard Upheld.

Frankfort—Five thousand dollars a year is too much for a saloon license in Bowling Green, the court of appeals decided in affirming the Warren circuit court in the case of Townsend, mayor, against John Gorin and same against Montgomery & Williams. The court of appeals holds that the license fee is unreasonable and intended to defeat a statute. When Warren county took a vote on the question of saloons the city of Bowling Green voted wet, but the city council met and fixed the saloon license at $5,000. Saloon men brought suit to compel the council to grant licenses and the lower court granted a writ of mandamus against the council, requiring it to issue licenses under the old law. The lower court is sustained by the higher court.

The court affirmed the death sentence imposed on Charles Howard by a Franklin county jury. He was sentenced to be electrocuted for the murder of Ed Rice, a white man.

Crop Conditions. Reports of the September crop shows but little difference between the condition of crops in September and the month before. The report is as follows:

There is not any material difference between the reports for September and August. The percentages below show the conditions of crops in the different agricultural districts:

Wheat—sown. First district, 32 per cent; Second, 36; Third, 37; Fourth, 62; Fifth, 65; or an average of 45.

Rye—sown. First district, 62 per cent; Second, 65; Third, 53; Fourth, 70; Fifth, 64; or an average of 63.

Condition of livestock: First district, 81; Second, 96; Third, 92; Fourth, 87; Fifth, 98; or an average of 91.

Condition of corn: First district, 87 per cent; Second, 91; Third, 76; Fourth, 93; Fifth, 70; average, 83.

Potatoes compared with 1910: First district, 31 per cent; Second, 36; Third, 34; Fourth, 50; Fifth, 47; average, 40.

Condition of bluegrass: First district, 92 per cent; Second, 98; Third, 95; Fourth, 90; Fifth, 85; average, 92.

Price of cattle, a pound: First district, 46; Second, 46; Third, 50; Fourth, 54; Fifth, 46; average, 48.

Price of sheep, a pound: First district, 46; Second, 46; Third, 46; Fourth, 46; Fifth, 46; average, 46.

Price of hogs, a pound: First district, 46; Second, 46; Third, 46; Fourth, 46; Fifth, 46; average, 46.

Price of chickens, a pound: First district, 96; Second, 96; Third, 110; Fourth, 96; Fifth, 100; average, 100.

Price of butter, a pound: First district, 17; Second, 17; Third, 17; Fourth, 17; Fifth, 17; average, 17.

Price of eggs: First district, 16; Second, 15; Third, 18; Fourth, 16; Fifth, 16; average, 16.

Price of potatoes, a bushel: First district, $2.75; Second, $1.75; Third, $1.60; Fourth, $1.31; Fifth, $2.30; average, $1.80.

Price of dried beans, a bushel: First district, $2; Second, $2; Third, $2.20; Fourth, $1.71; Fifth, $2.30; average, $2.

It will be noticed that owing to the recent rains the pastures are in much better condition than at last report. There has been an improvement of 27 per cent.

The tobacco crop raised in Franklin county this season is said to be remarkable for its heavy weight, and in many places is far above the ordinary in this regard. Notwithstanding earlier reports to the contrary it is now claimed by growers that the general yield throughout the county will be well up to the average of former years.

The collection of whisky tax in September, the last running up to $218,443.21 on 2,244 barrels of whisky—240 collections for September, 1910, amounted to only $194,744.77, the increase for this year being $23,698.44, which is a considerable gain for one month.

INTERSTATE COMMISSION

KENTUCKY SHIPPERS WILL BE GIVEN A HEARING IN LOU- ISVILLE SOON.

RELATIVE TO COMPLAINTS MADE

Railways and Bridge Companies Are Accused of Charging Excessive Rates on Coal and Lumber—Complainants Are Kentucky Firms.

Washington, D. C., Special Examiner Boyle, representing the United States interstate commerce commission, will at Louisville, Ky., hear at tomorrow representing lumber, coal and cotton seed companies, which have complained to the interstate commerce commission about the alleged unfairness of rates charged by railroads. The complainants, with the exception of Edward T. Silder, of New Albany, Ind., are Kentucky firms.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE. Danville. On Friday and Saturday, Oct. 13 and 14, the annual farmers' institute will be held here under the direction of the commissioner of agriculture.

Only a few more delegates will be chosen at this meeting to attend the State Farmers' institute, which will be held in Frankfort in January or February, 1912.

LARGE WAREHOUSE BUILDING. Shelbyville. A large leaf tobacco market will be established here. The contract for a steel building 100x150 feet, which will cost $10,000 and will be completed by December 1, has been awarded. It will be built on a two-acre lot immediately adjoining a large red brick plant at the Bloomsfield of the L. & N. The site was bought by popular subscription and given to the company.

COSTLY FIRE AT PARIS. Paris. Fire originating in a stable in the rear of Curtis Henry & Co.'s grocery, Main and Fourteenth streets, gutted the building and spread to the yards of the Bourbon Lumber Co. adjoining. The fire department after a stubborn fight got the fire under control. The lumber company's loss is about $10,000, with very little insurance. Henry & Co.'s loss is about $5,000.

ACCUSED OF MURDER. Paducah. Miss Pearl Matlock was fatally wounded and her mother was killed by someone firing through their bedroom window. J. W. Synnally, to whom Miss Matlock had been married and from whom she was divorced, is accused by her as the assassin. Three bullets entered her body as she slept, and Mrs. Matlock was shot and instantly killed as she went to the aid of her daughter.

A MISCALCULATION. Louisville. Joseph Schiller, 80, the oldest man in the city, who has lived here 73 years, when he arrived home at 2:30 o'clock in the morning, tried to get in the back way. He climbed a stairway at the rear of the house. When half way up the steps he tripped, fell and broke his neck. He died half an hour later.

THE FAMOUS TRANSYLVANIA. Lexington. The famous $5,000 Transylvania will be raced for the 23d time. Always a great race, it promises to be better than ever this year, with such trotting stars as R. T. C. 2:06 1/4, Stroller 2:05 1/4, Anvil 2:08 1/4, Argot Hal 2:07 1/4, King Brook 2:07 1/4, Kentucky Handicap 2:06 1/4, Chatty Dred, Gordon Todd, Redline, Jr. and Cheney.

BATH COUNTY CENTENNIAL. Carlisle. Bath county is experiencing the greatest time in her history closing the celebration of her centennial. Owingville, the county seat, has been thronged with the greatest crowds of people ever known before. The celebration has been a homecoming for the natives and former residents of the county who have moved to other counties and states, many of them coming to the county from a great distance for the first time in years.

TEACHER IN JAPAN. Hopkinsville. The Rev. Milton L. Clemens, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, has resigned his charge and, accompanied by Mrs. Clemens, will leave for Japan. He has accepted a position as teacher of English in the Japanese public school at Osaka.

STATUE OF GEN. MORGAN. Lexington. The bronze statue of Gen. George H. Morgan, which will be dedicated by the centennial park, has arrived from Brooklyn, N. Y., where it was cast, and will be placed in position as soon as the pedestal, which is now being erected, is finished. The statue itself weighs 5,000 pounds.

Work will be pushed to complete the task before the unveiling, which will be held on October 18. Work has begun putting the granite base in place in readiness for the statue.

CAUSES OF PELLAGRA.

Epidemic Prevailing Mostly in Mountain Counties.

Lexington. The report of the investigation of pellagra, which was conducted under the orders of the surgeon general of the United States marine hospital service, at the request of the state board of health, has just been made public. The report concludes with the following data and statements:

"In the consideration of the whole series of 140 cases some generalizations can be made which may be of interest. Practically every case occurred in families in poor economic circumstances and living under rather unhygienic conditions. On account of the topography of the country the most suitable locations for houses are along the streams, consequently a large percentage of the inhabitants live along water courses. In every instance where I was able to visit the pellagrins at their homes I found them living within 500 or 600 yards from a stream. The question of diet was not gone into thoroughly, but in every instance where I was able to make inquiry regarding the diet of the pellagrins it was learned that corn products had been one of the main articles of diet."

"I was able to find only sixteen pellagrins who were then living at the homes at which they were living when they first noted the symptoms of the disease. It is interesting to note that supply in these instances it was found, with only one exception, to be either surface water from branches or creeks or water taken directly from neighboring mountain springs."

EDUCATIONAL ASSOCIATION. Carlisle. Arrangements are being made for the meeting of the first annual convention of the Educational Association of the Ninth Congressional district, which is to be held in this city November 24 and 25. The program is now being prepared by Mrs. Cora Whitson Stewart, of Morehead. The meeting will be the greatest gathering of educators ever held in the Ninth district, and all county superintendents, city superintendents, high school principals as well as many teachers and many prominent educators from all over the Ninth district, and some from various sections of the state, will be in attendance.

The cities of Maysville, Augusta, Flemingsburg, Ashland, Owensboro, Sharpsburg, Mt. Vernon, Morehead and others of the district will be represented.

CONTINUOUS PERFORMANCE. Whitesburg. On the farm of Burdine Webb can be seen an apple tree of unusual interest. The tree was planted nearly seventy years ago by Jason Webb, and for the past sixty years has been a steady and continuous bearer. This season, when thousands of young, vigorous trees failed to bear fruit, this old tree was laden with a bountiful crop of the finest fruit.

Black bass are taking the bait in angury style in the Kentucky river, and fine strings are being caught on the Woodford side of the stream near the mouth of Craig's creek. The recent rains have freshened up the water a bit in the upper portion of Pool No. 4, which is responsible for bringing about favorable conditions for angling. The large-mouth black bass is one of the gamest fish that swims, and when an angler lands one that weighs three or four pounds with a red and line he has accomplished a feat that gives him a good excuse for boasting just a little. The month of October, and up until the middle of November, is the best time of the year for the angler, the bass and the mongrel, the acknowledged headlines in their class.

THE NEW POSTOFFICE. Carlisleburg. The final and finishing touches are being given to the new government building at Main and Broadway, and there is an assurance that the postmaster will move the office there not later than the 15th of October. The boxes are all in and about everything in town who had boxes rented at the present postoffice building have taken their boxes at the new place. There has been a real scramble among the patrons of the office for choice of the boxes.

TOO MUCH FOR HACK DRIVER

High-Sounding Name Made Old Man Mysterious in the Wind.

After a long, hot and dusty journey by train the New York commercial traveler arrived in Richmond, brushed enough dust off his face to make sure that the right man was getting off, and hailed one of the little sea-going hacks common in the Old Dominion city. It was driven by an aged negro. "Drive me to a haberdashery," said the traveling man, surveying his soiled raiment with disfavor. "Yessuh," said the negro, "Giddup." The old horse started off at a little stiff-legged jog trot. The driver seemed to be thinking deeply. "Yip and by," he pulled the horse to a stop, and leaned backward to his fare. "Scuse me, sah," said he, "but wey do you all want to go?" "Drive me to a haberdashery," said the traveling man. "Oh, yessuh," said the negro. "Giddup." The hack rattled on for a little way, and then the negro stopped, got off the box and poked his head in over the little door. "Mebbe Ah didn't get dat name jus' right," said he. "Would you all mine repeat it, suh?" The traveling man said for the third time that he wanted to go to a haberdashery. The old driver shook his gray wool and looked grieved. "Ah'm an ole man," said he. "Yoush kin trust me. Whead is it you really want to go?"

THEN HE GOT WORSE.

The Angry Man—I see the scoundrel in your face.

The Calm Man—That's a personal reflection.

The Proof.

Mrs. J. G. Phelps-Spokes, in an address in Pittsburg, was urging her women hearers to learn to be good cooks.

"If," she said quaintly, "you would convince your husband that you are a better actress than Duse and a better dancer than Pavlova, prove to him that you are a better cook than Escoffier."

Well arranged time is the surest mark of a well-arranged mind—Pittsburg.

A FINE NIGHT-CAP

The Best Thing in the World to Go to Bed and Sleep On.

"My wife and I find that 4 teaspoonfuls of Grape-Nuts and a cup of hot milk, or some cream, with it, makes the finest night-cap in the world," says an Allegheny, Pa., man.

"We go to sleep as soon as we strike the bed, and slumber like babies till rising time in the morning."

"It is about 5 years now since we began to use Grape-Nuts food, and we always have it for breakfast and before retiring and sometimes for lunch. I was so sick from what the doctors called acute indigestion and brain fog before I began to use Grape-Nuts that I could neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort."

"I was afflicted at the same time with the most intense pains, accompanied by a racking headache and backache, every time I tried to eat anything. Notwithstanding an unusual pressure from my professional duties, I was compelled for a time to give up my work altogether."

"Then I put myself on a diet of Grape-Nuts and cream alone, with an occasional cup of Postum as a runner-up, and sometimes a little dry toast. I assure you that in less than a week I felt like a new man; I had gained six pounds in weight, could sleep well and think well."

"The good work went on, and I was soon ready to return to business, and have been hard at it, and enjoying it ever since."

"Command me at any time any one anywhere as to the merits of Grape-Nuts. You will find me always ready to testify." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in 100 pages. There's a reason. After read the above letter a new man appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

M'CABE FIRED FROM PURE FOOD BOARD

DR. WILEY LEFT APPARENTLY IN SUPREME COMMAND.

Changes Announced by Secretary Wilson Following Long Conference With Dr. Wiley.

Washington.—In a succession of orders an initial move in the expected reorganization of the department of agriculture, Solicitor George P. McCabe Tuesday was relieved from the pure food and drug board. Associate Chemist F. L. Dunlap, closely identified with McCabe, was allowed leave of absence until the president's return, and Dr. Harvey W. Wiley was left apparently in supreme command of the board. Dr. R. E. Hoshell, of New York, was temporarily appointed to the board to succeed Mr. McCabe.

These changes were announced by Secretary Wilson today, following a conference with Dr. Wiley, who has been on a long vacation. They were deemed inevitable in view of the official and personal antagonism aired before a congressional committee last summer and Dr. Wiley's exonerated by President Taft, after Attorney General Wickersham, with views aligned with those of Secretary Wilson and Solicitor McCabe, had recommended Dr. Wiley's removal as head of the chemistry bureau, because of a technical irregularity in appointive methods, the responsibility for which he denied.

The pure food and drug board is the agency which passed upon many important cases arising under the enforcement of the pure food law. Dr. Wiley on the one hand and Solicitor McCabe and Dr. Dunlap on the other were the members of the board.

COTTON CORNER UNLAWFUL

Government's Case Against Patten, Scales and Others.

Washington.—The legal contest before the supreme court of the United States over the question of whether a corner of the cotton market is a violation of the Sherman anti-trust law began when Solicitor General Taft filed a brief contending that the law so applies.

The point arose from the appeal of the government from the action of the New York federal court in quashing certain counts of an indictment against James A. Patten, Eugene C. Scales, Frank R. Hayne and William P. Brown. A general corner can no more be accomplished in a commodity like cotton without affecting the entire commerce in that staple, says the solicitor general, "than Shylock's bond could be enforced without shedding a drop of blood."

CLAIM CAN FLOAT THE MAINE

Fitting of Bulkhead Will Be Begun at Once.

Havana.—An examination of the after section of the battleship Maine, comprising about one-third the full length of the ship, has removed all doubt from the minds of the engineers in charge of raising the vessel of the feasibility of building a bulkhead in it and floating it out of the cofferdam. Consequently the fitting of the bulkhead will be started as soon as material is received from the North.

There still is a possibility that the engines of the Maine are in such condition that they can be restored to service and with temporary boilers permit of the wreck proceeding out of the harbor under her own steam.

HELP GET BETTER PRICES

Improvement in Handling, Grading and Marketing Urged.

Washington.—An effort to secure higher prices for cotton by an improvement in the methods of handling, grading and marketing the crop is to be made by the government this year in cooperation with prominent cotton growers.

The plan is designed to bring to the cotton raisers the full benefit of the increase in value that can be secured by a careful grading of the crop to correspond with the new government standards. These standards have been in the hands of the cotton exchanges for some time and are recognized official standards of the trade.

RAILROADS MAKE CLAIMS

Say That Traffic Along Harriman Lines Practically Normal.

Chicago.—The end of the first week of the shippers' strike on the Harriman and Illinois Central lines sees traffic practically normal, according to statements by President Markham of the Illinois Central and Vice-President Knott of the Harriman lines. Although both admit that the number of shop workers is depleted, they say there are enough men at work to make all repairs to rolling stock needed.

Roger Sullivan Fired Out. Springfield.—If such a thing were possible of accomplishment by the Hearst Hearst progressive Democrats of Illinois, Roger Sullivan and his followers were Wednesday positively read out of the Democratic party.

In resolutions adopted at a state Democratic meeting, which Max Baughman, of Chicago, presided, "Sullivanism" and "Baughmanism" were denounced and a demand made for a leadership "which will battle for Democratic principles rather than by party spoils."

ITALIANS HAVE TAKEN TRIPOLI

EMBASSY DID NOT HARM PROPERTY OF EUROPEANS.

Germany Restrains Turkey in the Hope of Being Able to Settle the Trouble.

Rome.—The capitulation of the Turkish forces in Tripoli is virtually complete. Dispatches received at the ministry of war report that the chiefs of the desert tribes in the vicinity of Tripoli have hastened to acknowledge their submission to the Italian commander.

It had been feared that these tribesmen might give heed to the agitation of a holy war for the extermination of all Christians in the sultan's dominions. The bombardment of the city did no great damage. Six Turkish soldiers and ten Jews were killed, according to the official reports received here.

The Italian fleet remains in the harbor.

Capt. Cagna, who accompanied the Duke of the Abruzzi on his arctic expedition, is in command of the landing party at Tripoli. As soon as their reconnaissance had been made and the captain had reported, it was announced that Admiral Borodino had been appointed governor of Tripoli. He assumed his duties at once. The Italian marines occupied all the outer forts at Tripoli, while the fleet guards the coast for its full length.

When King Victor Emmanuel was informed of the landing of the marines and the hoisting of the Italian colors in Tripoli he said: "I hope our Red Sea colony and Tripoli will attract a great Italian immigration, which will establish a vast Italian empire and thus resurrect for my successors the titles of the ancient Roman emperors."

RESTRAINING TURKEY.

Italian Expedition Will Leave for Tripoli.

Berlin.—Although the Italians landed marines at Tripoli, it is understood here that mediation will not be acceptable before the expedition from Italy. Germany, in the meantime, is endeavoring to restrain Turkey from taking any measures that might lessen the hope of successful mediation.

PROVIDES FOR PARCELS POST

Experiments in Mail Transportation Through Air.

Washington.—Provision for the establishment of a parcels post and the transportation of mail by aeroplane has been made by Postmaster General Hitchcock in his annual estimates of postoffice department expenditures, submitted to the treasury department.

According to Mr. Hitchcock's estimates, postoffice appropriations necessary during the coming fiscal year will be $260,938,463, a decrease of $2,585,740 over the appropriations for the current fiscal year, or less than 1 per cent, the smallest on record.

Items providing for a parcels post include $30,000 for preliminary expenses on rural mail routes and an equal appropriation to start the service in the cities.

10,000 KILLED IN CHINA

Anti-Foreign Insurgents and Troops Fight Desperately.

Peking.—Ten thousand persons were killed during the recent fighting between anti-foreign insurgents and government troops in Sze Chuen province, according to telegrams from American missionaries at Cheng Tu. Of the dead, 2,000 were soldiers. Rebels are in possession of many cities southwest of Cheng Tu. Soldiers have been sent against them.

Coast-to-Coast Tour.

New York.—A plan for a 1913 Glidden tour to extend from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific has been submitted to the American Automobile Association officials by a Western organization, which thinks the trip would prove a popular feature in connection with the world's fair scheduled as a part of the Panama canal opening celebration. Inasmuch as many persons are expected to visit California when the world's fair is on, it is urged as an entirely natural thing that many should come by automobile.

SERIOUS OUTBREAK AT McCOMB CITY

RIOTING THROUGHOUT 24 HOURS SEEMS TO BE OVER.

Soldiers, Armed With Instructions to Kill, Guard Train Loaded With Strikebreakers.

McComb City, Miss.—With the enforced departure Wednesday afternoon of the last of the strikebreakers brought here by the Illinois Central railroad came the first real assurance of the dawn of peace after twenty-four hours of excitement and sporadic rioting. The people of McComb City demanded that the strikebreakers be removed from their community, and the 132 men were placed aboard a heavily guarded special train and hurried to New Orleans.

Sixty soldiers armed with ball cartridges and with orders to "shoot to kill," if necessary, accompanied the special train south as far as Magnolia.

After the strikebreakers had agreed to get out of town the departure of the train was delayed for nearly three hours by protests from the railroad company, and the people of McComb City began to exhibit signs of lawlessness and some shots were fired. About a half hour before the train left a number of these persons, well armed, left the city, going south and taking up a position near the railroad track on which the special would have to pass en route to New Orleans.

These final orders were given just before the departure of the special train by Maj. George Hoskins of Brookhaven, who was placed in charge of the soldiers aboard. The strikebreakers were glad to get away from the town.

TO PROBE COFFEE CORNER

In Eighteen Months Prices Have Risen 100 Per Cent.

New York.—The federal government is preparing to take hold of the coffee corner with the view of finding out why, within eighteen months, coffee in the United States has risen 100 per cent, why at the present moment this daily beverage of millions of Americans is obtainable only at famine prices, although there is not now and has not been in the period stated anything like a famine in the commodity, and to fix responsibility upon the persons responsible for this anomalous commercial condition that is imposing a hardship upon a greater mass of people of all stations of life in the United States than is being imposed by any of the many trusts the federal authorities now have under investigation or are contemplating action against.

UNCLE SAM MAY INTERVENE

Political Situation in Panama Considerably Involved.

Washington.—The United States may have to act in the political imbroglio in Panama, growing out of President Arce's notice, that he will take a six months' "vacation" so that he may qualify for that amount of re-election. The Liberian president of Panama will not recognize Arce's proposed vacation as compliance with the laws that prohibit a man who has held the office six months previously and Washington may be obliged to step in and tell Arce how far he can go in his political moves.

Too Many Sock Divorces.

Kansas City, Mo.—So numerous have become applications for divorce at each session of the court in this county that the judges decided that some action must be taken to stop the rush. The majority of the judges favor the suggestion of having the board of public welfare employ attorneys to investigate each suit as it is filed. At a recent session of the divorce court almost sixty decrees were granted in one day. It is said many persons leave the state immediately after obtaining their divorces.

FLOOD VICTIMS ARE NEAR STARVATION

CITY OF BLACK RIVER FALLS, WIS., BLOTTED FROM MAP.

Communication With Towns Down Black River Cut Off—Half-Famished People Fear to Spend Another Night of Terror.

Black River Falls, Wis.—With the town of Black River Falls, Hatfield and North Bend practically destroyed with scores of farm houses away, it is impossible to verify rumors of losses of life in the Black River valley floods, and the remarkable spectacle is presented of thousands of people homeless with perhaps but a few of a single life. Fifty-three business buildings out of sixty-one in Black River Falls have disappeared, as have over thirty residences. The town of North Bend, north of here, is entirely destroyed. Damage to crops of the surrounding country will be immense. The water in all directions is covered with floating corpses of chickens, hogs, sheep, cattle and horses.

The loss to Black River Falls alone is estimated at $1,000,000, while the La Crosse Power Company, the breaking of whose dam at Hatfield caused the destruction of practically everything in the valley, will lose at least half a million.

Thousands are homeless in the fields, having fled before the great flood waves swept down the valley. Food is scarce and starvation threatens as the transportation of food supplies is a question with which to be reckoned. Miles of railroad track has been washed away. Hundreds of residents have moved their belongings to nearby farms. The population fears to spend another night here for the dread of being carried into the river by the crumbling banks.

RAILROAD STRIKE SITUATION

Railroad Officials Say Many of Men Becoming Weary.

Chicago.—Quiet prevailed in the strike of shop workers on the Illinois Central and other Harriman railroads, according to announcements of railroad officials here.

They said the men are becoming dissatisfied with the way the strike is being handled, and that many of the local unions are demanding it be ended. Union leaders, however, maintain that the men are satisfied with the progress of the strike and are prepared to remain out all winter, if necessary, to gain their demands.

CABBAGES SAVED THEIR LIVES

Three Men Held on in Water, But One Other Drowned.

Hazelton, Ind.—A big sack of cabbages saved the lives of three men, but there was not room for the group of a fourth. The boat turned over in White river near here, Henry Wallace, Felix Zeldi, William Alford and Peter Peyton were riding in a gasoline launch on the river and one of them was transporting a sack of cabbages. The boat turned over, Zeldi, Alford and Peyton succeeded in getting hold of the floating cabbages, but Wallace could not and sank, while his companions, being unable to help him, swam ashore with the support of their vegetable life-preserver.

WOULD HOLD COTTON PRICE

Texas Farmers' Union Indorses the Governors' Conference.

Fort Worth, Tex.—President Peter Ladd of the Texas Farmers' Union heartily indorses the suggestion that a conference of the governors of the Southern states be held to see what may be done to maintain the price of cotton, which has been declining for several weeks and is now practically at cost of production. He says he will immediately communicate with the local unions throughout the state of Texas and with the unions of other states, with a view of having this suggestion adopted and request made upon the governors of the proposed conference.

COL. JACOB REYSER DEAD

Famous Kentucky Penniless After Spending a Fortune.

Washington.—Col. Jacob Reyser, known to every Southern member of congress and for ten years the most popular of the "old" Bigges House Democrats, is dead. "Old" Reyser died practically penniless at the Washington asylum hospital. Twelve years ago his fortune was estimated at $200,000, but he spent money lavishly until he reduced himself to the charity of his friends.

"Crabites" Leader Held.

Nashville, Ind.—The Rev. David Graham, leader of the "Crabites," a religious sect of peculiar doctrines, was placed in the historic log cabin here, following a raid on the person's ice cream shop, at which it is alleged he and his wife were sold. The person declares the lord will clear him in court.

ATTEMPT TO LYNCH INDIAN

North Carolina Cherokee Arrested for Killing Girl.

Asheville, N. C.—Ross French, 21, a Cherokee Indian, living in the Black Town, "Savannah" reservation, was safely locked in the county jail here, charged with the murder of Ethel Schuler, the 14-year-old daughter of a Bird Town farmer. His arrival here was effected after a westing-people from a mob of 100 men bent on lynching the prisoner.

IS GRANDDAUGHTER OF KEY

Mrs. Norwood Gives Manuscript of "Star Spangled Banner" to Washington Relative.

Texarkana, Ark.—Mrs. Rebecca T. Norwood of this place, granddaughter of Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star Spangled Banner," has gone to Washington with some priceless souvenirs of her illustrious ancestor. She will deliver to a cousin, Attorney Francis Scott Key Smith, a copy of the original volume of Key's poems and an early manuscript of "The Star Spangled Banner," in the poet's own handwriting.

Mrs. Norwood is a daughter of Daniel Turner, who married Ann Key, eldest daughter of the poet. A great-grandfather was Joseph Turner, one time governor of North Carolina. Her father served under Admiral Farragut when he was in command of the Mare Island navy yard in San Francisco. A sister, who recently died, was Mrs. J. Mills Browne, wife of a former surgeon general of the United States army.

Mrs. Rebecca T. Norwood.

Mrs. Norwood is one of the charter members of the Francis Scott Key Memorial Association. She is interested in a reproduction of the old volume of Key's poems, that its proceeds may be added to a fund for the preservation of the Key homestead in Georgetown, near part of Washington.

She visited her grandfather there when she was only 13 years old. Although she only saw him twice and then when she was very young, she has some interesting reminiscences of him.

TREE TAKES ON HUMAN FORM

The "Ballet Girl" Is One of the Remarkable Curiosities of Nature in New Hampshire.

Milford, N. H.—One of the remarkable curiosities of nature is the "Ballet Girl" tree on the road from Milford to the railroad station at Pownall.

The formation of the limbs of the tree is such that when the leaves come out it gives a remarkable representation of a ballet girl and is further intensified if a breeze is blowing, and the figure moves with a motion not unlike that of one going through the latest two-step.

The tree was first discovered by some summer guests, for although it is directly beside a much-traveled road its peculiar outthrust had not reached growth enough to attract observation until by the road agent who has charge of that section.

KILLED A SUFFERING WOMAN

Two Shakers Are Sent to Jail in Florida for Poisoning Tuberculosis Victim.

Ashton, Fla.—Eugene Gillett and Elizabeth Sears, members of the Shaker colony here, are in jail charged with causing the death of Sadie Marchant, another member of the colony, by the use of poison.

Sadie Marchant died and was buried on the colony land by Gillett and a woman known as Sister Amanda. The officers were notified of the occurrence and after an investigation arrested Gillett and the Sears woman. They admit giving the woman the poison, asserting that the victim was hopelessly ill with tuberculosis and wanted to die and escape from her sufferings. They acceded to her appeals and gave her chloroform.

Mrs. Cracks Evangelist's Ribs. Memphis, Ark.—In the final session of a revival here, Rev. John R. Culpepper of Georgia was surprised by an enthusiastic revivalist and hugged until his ribs cracked.

MUNYON PREACHES HOPE PHILOSOPHY

New Association Gaining Many Members.

FAITH'S CURATIVE POWER

NOTED HEALTH EXPERT GIVES REASON FOR BIG SUCCESS IN MEDICINE

Tremendous success has attended the organization of the new Munyon "Hope Club." Professor Munyon claims that he has secured more converts than he even anticipated, and says that his "Hope Club" is growing in leaps and bounds. It is said that the total membership of the association throughout the United States is now well over the half million mark.

In a statement for publication, Prof. Munyon said: "I want to talk to every sick, ailing and dependent person in this city. I want to preach my new credo to them. I want to tell them about my new philosophy of health, which is the fruit of a lifetime of study and experience in dealing with sick folk."

I want to expound the Great Truth that I have learned that there is more curative power in a ounce of Hope than in a pound of Drugs. That sick people should not take medicine except as a medium through which the great curative power of Hope may be made effective. Medicine is necessary in the present state of the world's progress but it is not the end of the matter. It is but a means to an end, and it is the duty of the physician to use it wisely and to all who desire it I offer the best medical advice absolutely free of charge."

Write today, addressing Prof. J. M. Munyon personally and your letter will have a special care.

A Metaphor Revisited.

"Did I understand you to say, sir," said Colonel Stillwell, "that you regarded that orator's remarks as moonshine?"

"That's what I said," replied the critical person.

"Well, sir, I do not wish to seem capricious, but when it comes to comparing that line of talk with a mountain product for whose vigorous qualities I have a large degree of respect, I must say your efforts to be complimentary, sir, go entirely too far."

The Climatic Autocrat.

"What I should like," said the self-indulgent person, "would be to have wealth enough to permit me to live in a cool place in summer, and regulate the temperature according to my own fancy in winter."

"You don't need wealth. What you want is the job of janitor."

The Kind.

"Don't laugh at Miss Gladys Gooseberry as trivial. She is a scientific woman."

"She scientific? What kind?"

"You must admit she is a chemica blonde."

As frost, raised to its utmost intensity, produces the sensation of fire, so a good quality, over-wrought and pushed to excess, turns into its own contrary.—Wm. Matthews.

WHERE TUBS PRECEDE BOOKS

Denmark School Children Must Bathe Before They File in for Prayers and Recitations.

Denmark is one of the cleanest countries imaginable. In a Copenhagen public school one may see an interesting sight. Mounting the spotless stone staircase to the first floor every morning you may see eight o'clock the children assemble and answer to their names and then march to a dressing room. Here they undress, and each child neatly folds its clothes and puts the dry bundle on the floor. Then the children go into a small square room with shelves all around and on these shelves are innumerable wooden tubs, such as we use in America for washing, with two iron bands around them. Everything is in immaculate order. The teacher gives each child a tub and he or she takes it to an immense and well lighted wash room.

Of course the boys and girls are washed separately, and they perform this ablution by grade, the tallest ones coming first. The floor of the wash room is of cement and in the center is a latticed wooden floor. Around the top of the walls runs a nickel shower pipe, the water of which is regulated by the teacher. Under these showers at the height where the small figures can reach, are nickel stands with soap and the stiffest hog bristle brushes which make one shiver. Nearly is a faucet.

Each child puts his or her tub under the faucet and pours the necessary amount of water into it and proceeds to scrub—not himself or herself—but the child in front. When all are clean the teacher turns on the showers and they are all thoroughly rinsed with first hot and then cold water. Each child is obliged to empty its own tub, then the clean, dry little bodies dry themselves with rough towels, standing on the wooden latticed floor. Each tub has to be carefully put away, the children dress them selves and they file in for prayers at the business of recitation begins.—South's Companion.

WILL BUILD RUSSIAN CANAL

Minimum Depth of Proposed Canal Between Black and Baltic Seas to Be Fourteen Feet.

A committee has been formed at St. Petersburg to prepare for the construction of a canal between the Black Sea and the Baltic. The engineering project, which has been prepared by M. Rugetschel, is to build a canal with a minimum depth of 14 feet. The original project was to have a canal 31 feet deep, so as to allow the passage of large warships, but the government rejected this on the ground that sufficient water could not be found to feed such a canal.

The total length of the canal from Riga to Kherson is 2010 versts, a verst measuring 3,281 feet. Of this 455 versts would follow the bed of the West Dvina from Riga to the village of Breshenkovitch. From there the canal would follow a new route for 55 versts, joining the Dnieper at the town of Koptus. For the remaining 1,500 versts the Dnieper would be utilized, except at the rapids, where a new canal would have to be excavated.

The Dnieper would require dredging at many points. The Dvina would be made into a canal for its entire length and would require 15 locks. The water would be drawn from the Berest-na by a canal 125 versts long. The cost of the canal is estimated at $150,000,000. The plan is to raise money by bonds on the foreign market, but to exclude foreigners from holding any of the share capital. The government is to be asked for a guarantee, and only Russian labor, material and machinery are to be used. The promoters rely on a gross annual revenue of $16,950,000.—London Correspondence New York Sun.

He Sailed on the Constitution. John Lowe, who once was a member of the crew of the historic frigate Constitution, has died at his home in Portsmouth, N. H., after a short illness. He was born in New York January 9, 1824. When he was seventeen years old both of his parents died. After a limited amount of schooling he learned the trade of a stone mason, but in 1852 he enlisted in the Marine Corps at Brooklyn navy yard and after a short stay at the yard barracks was assigned to the Constitution, then commanded by Commodore Isaac Mayo. The ship soon left New York for Gibraltar and a cruise in the Mediterranean and returned to this country in 1855. On the expiration of his enlistment—Mc Lowe, re-enlisted in 1856 and went to the Portsmouth naval station in the vessel when she was sent there to be rebuilt. He was transferred to the marine barracks at the navy yard and served out his second term of enlistment.

Great in More Ways Than One. "One peculiarity of automobiles that I don't remember to have heard mentioned," said a man who had just sent a suit of clothes to the cleaner, "is found in their great ability as mud and slush splashers."

An ordinary automobile wheel cuts into mud and slush and doesn't scatter either so much, but the broad, round faced tire of an automobile scatters mud and slush in all directions, spraying it out from its wheels. When you see an automobile coming swiftly along a muddy or slushy street you want to stand back—way back! This I have learned by experience."

SOME HELPFUL HINTS ON HAIR HEALTH.

Scalp and Hair Troubles Generally Caused by Carelessness.

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe which also produces baldness. Never use a comb or brush belonging to some one else. No matter how cleanly the woman may be, these articles may be infected with microbes, which will infect your scalp. It is far easier to catch hair microbes than it is to get rid of them, and a single stroke of an infected comb or brush may well lead to baldness. Never try on anybody else's hat. Many a hat-band is a resting place for microbes.

If you happen to be troubled with dandruff itching scalp, falling hair or baldness, we have a remedy which we believe will completely relieve these troubles. We are so sure of this that we offer it to you with the understanding that it will not cost you anything for the trial if it does not produce the results we claim. This remedy is called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We honestly believe it to be the most scientific remedy for the scalp and hair troubles and we know of nothing else that equals it for effectiveness, because of the results it has produced in thousands of cases.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is devised to banish dandruff, restore natural color when its loss has been brought about by disease, and make the hair naturally silky, soft and glossy. It does this because it stimulates the hair follicles, destroys the germ matter, and brings about a free, healthy circulation of blood, causing them to tighten and grow new hair. We want everybody who has any trouble with hair or scalp to know that we think that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is the best hair tonic and restorative in existence, and no one should scoff at or doubt this statement until they have put our claims to a fair test, with the understanding that they pay us nothing for the remedy if it does not give full and complete satisfaction in every particular. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Murray only at our store—The Rexall Store. Dale & Stubblefield.

SYNOPSIS

Jack Keith, a Virginian now a border plainman, is riding along the Santa Fe trail on the lookout for roaming parties of savages. He notices a camp fire at a distance and then sees a team of horses and a wagon and a full gallop pursued by men on ponies. When Keith reaches the wagon the raiders have massacred two men and departed. He searches the victims' pockets and finds a letter with a woman's portrait. He resolves to hunt down the murderers. Keith is arrested at Carson City, charged with the murder, and is sent to jail. He escapes from the jail and goes to the border. He meets a man named Black Bart, who is a notorious horse thief. Keith is attracted to Black Bart and follows him. Black Bart is a man of many parts, a gambler, a thief, and a lover. Keith is drawn to him by his charm and his daring. Keith follows Black Bart to a place called the 'Black Horse' where he meets a woman named Miss Macaire. Miss Macaire is a woman of mystery and beauty. Keith is attracted to her and follows her. CHAPTER XI.—(Continued.)

"The action has only really begun. He assured her, still retaining his hold upon her hand. "This was merely a preliminary skirmish, and you must prepare to bear your part in what follows. We have settled Mr. Hawley for the present, and now must deal with his gang."

"On what would I have done if you had not been here?" "Let us not think about that; we were here, and now have a busy night before us if we get away safely. Give me the rope first. Good! Here, Neb, you must know how to use this rope; it's tight, but without leaving any play to the arms; take the knife out of his belt. Now for the cloth, Miss Macaire."

"Please do not call me that!" "But you said it didn't make any difference what I called you."

"Oh, I see; we are already on a new footing. Yet I must call you something."

"She hesitated just long enough for him to notice it. Either she had no substitute ready at hand, or else doubted the advisability of confiding her real name under present circumstances to one so nearly a stranger."

"You may call me Hope."

"A name certainly of good omen," he returned. "From this moment I shall forget Christie Macaire, and remember only Miss Hope. All right, Neb; now turn over a chair, and sit your man up against it. He will rest all the easier in that position until his gang arrives."

"He thrust his head out of the door, peering cautiously forth into the night, and listening. A single horse, probably the one Hawley had been riding, was tied to a dwarfed cottonwood near the corner of the cabin. Nothing else living was visible."

"I am going to round up our horses, and learn the condition of Hawley's outfit," he announced in a low voice. "I may be gone for fifteen or twenty minutes, and, meanwhile, Miss Hope, get ready for a long ride. Neb, stand here close beside the door, and if any one tries to come in brain him with your gun-stick. I'll rap three times when I return."

"He slipped out into the silent night, and crept cautiously around the end of the dark cabin. The distinct change in the girl's attitude of friendship toward him, her eager, evident desire that he should think well of her, together with the providential opportunity for escape, had left him full of confidence. The gambler had played blindly into their hands, and Keith was quick enough to accept the advantage. It was a risk to himself, to be sure, thus turning again to the northward, yet the clear duty he owed the girl left such a choice almost imperative. He certainly could not drag her along with him on his flight into the wild Comanche country extending beyond the Canadian. She must, at the very least, be sent returned to the protection of the semi-civilized settlers along the Arkansas. After that had been accomplished, he would consider his own safety. He wondered if Hope really was his name, and whether it was the family cognomen, or her given name. That she was Christie Macaire he had no question; yet that aristocratic embellishment was probably merely assumed for the work of the concert hall. Both he and Hawley could scarcely be mistaken as to her identity in this respect, and, indeed, she had never openly denied the fact. Yet she did not at all seem to be that kind, and Keith mentally contrasted her with numerous others whom he had somewhat intimately known along the border circuit. It was difficult to associate her with that class; she must have come originally from some excellent family East, and been driven to the life by necessity; she was more to be pitied than blamed. Keith held no puritanical views of life—his own experiences had been too rough and democratic for that—yet he clung to nauseously to an ideal of womanhood which had not been lowered. However interested he might otherwise feel, no Christie Macaire could ever find entrance into the depths of his heart, where dwelt alone the memory of his mother. He found the other horses turned into the corral, and was able, from their restless movements, to decide they numbered eight. A fire, nearly extinguished, glowed dimly at the farther corner of the enclosure, and he crawled close enough to distinguish the recumbent forms of men sleeping about it on the ground. Apparently no guard had been set, the fellows being worn out from their long ride, and confident of safety in this isolated spot. Besides, Hawley had probably assumed that duty, and told them to get whatever sleep they could. However, the gate of the corral opened beside their fire, and Keith dare not venture upon roping any of their ponies, or leading them out past where they slept. There might be clippers in the cabin with which he could cut the wires, yet if one of the gang awoke, and discovered the herd about it would result in an alarm, and lead to early pursuit. It was far safer to use their own ponies. He would lead Hawley's horse quietly through the water, and they could mount on the other shore. This plan settled, he went at it bravely, and the captured animal, while rounding up the others, and fastening the three to stunted trees on the opposite bank. Everything within the cabin remained exactly as he had left it, and he briefly explained the situation, examining Hawley's bonds again carefully while doing so.

"He'll remain there all right until his men find him," he declared, positively, "and that ought to give us a good six hours' start. Come, Miss Hope, every minute counts now."

He held her arm, not unconscious of its round shapeliness, as he helped her down the rather steep bank through the dense gloom. Then the two men joined hands, and carrying her between them, waded the shallow stream. The horses, not yet sufficiently rested to be frisky, accepted their burdens meekly enough, and with scarcely a word spoken, the three rode away silently into the gloom of the night.

CHAPTER XII.

Through the Night Shadows. Keith had very little to guide him, as he could not determine whether this mysterious cabin on the Salt Fork lay to east or west of the usual cattle trail leading down to the Canadian. Yet he felt reasonably assured that the general trend of the country lying between the smaller stream and the valley of the Arkansas would be similar to that with which he was already acquainted. It was merely a wild stretch of sandy desolation, across which their horses would leave scarce ly any trail, and even that little would be quickly obliterated by the first puff of wind. As they drew in toward the river valley this plain would change into sand dunes, baffling and confusing, but no matter how hard they pressed forward, it must be daylight long before they could hope to reach these, and this would give him opportunity to spy out some familiar landmark which would guide them to the ford. Meanwhile, he must head as directly north as possible, trusting the horses to find footing.

It was plain that, instead of rather long training in the open, which enabled him to retain any true sense of direction, for beyond the narrow fringe of cottonwoods along the stream, nothing was visible, the eyes scarcely able even to distinguish where earth and sky met. They advanced across a bare level, without elevation or depression, yet the sand appeared sufficiently solid, so that their horses were forced into a swinging lope, and they seemed to fairly press aside the black curtain, which as instantly swung shut once more, and closed them in. The pounding hoofs made little noise, and they pressed steadily onward, closely bunched together, so as not to lose each other, dim, spectral shadows flit

"I possess a passing acquaintance," he answered, uncertain yet how much to tell her, but tempted to reveal all to test her real character. "Few do not who live along the Kansas border."

"Do you mean he is a notoriously bad character?"

"I have never heard of his being held up as a model to the young, Miss Hope," he returned more soberly, convinced that she truly possessed a real knowledge regarding the man, and was not merely pretending innocence. "I had never heard him called Hawley before, and, therefore, failed to recognize him under that respectable name. But I know his voice the moment he entered the cabin, and realized that some devilment was afoot. Every town along this frontier has his record, and I've met him maybe a dozen times in the past three years. He is known as Black Bart; is a gambler by profession, a desperado by reputation, and a cur by nature. Just now I suspect him of being even deeper in the mire than this."

He could tell by the quick clapping of her hands on the pommet of the saddle the effect of his words, and they waited until the silence compelled her to speak.

"Oh, I didn't know! You do not believe that I ever suspected such a thing? That I ever met him there understanding who he was?"

"No, I do not," he answered. "What I overheard between you convinced me you were the victim of deceit. But your going to that place alone was a most reckless act."

She lifted her hand to her eyes, her head drooping forward.

"Wasn't it what he told me—the outstation of a ranch?"

Begin When Boy Is Young, and Politeness Is Bound to Become Second Nature.

Long before I had any sons of my own I made up my mind that, if I should begin as soon as he could understand anything, to teach him the small things that constitute good manners. So many boys I have known, and men, too, who at heart are good and kind and really refined, yet lack so large a part of the little courtesies that it is hard to believe they have been well brought up. In most cases it is the fault of the mother. She feels that it is much more important to form the character of a little boy, that his manners can wait till he is older. The result is that one sees boys and men who rarely forget to be polite outside their homes, and yet seem to think it unnecessary to treat their own mother in the same way.

My view is that there is no need to neglect the character because you pay attention to the manners. I think I have succeeded. As soon as my first little boy wore trousers I taught him that he must take off his hat as soon as he came into the house or when a lady spoke to him in the street. That he must rise from his chair when I came at the dining table, must never walk out of the room before a lady, and all the other little polite ways we like to see in men. It has never been any trouble to keep him "B" to these things; he learned so young that it soon became second nature.—Harper's Bazar.

Very Taking Platform. Governor Dix, at a dinner in the Manhattan in New York, said of politics:

"Sneering at politics, the Goncourts once said that no party could ever lose office if it gave the people free fireworks every night and free vaudeville every day."

"But I heard of a candidate in the south who went the Goncourts one better."

"Fellow citizens," he shouted from the stump, "my platform is just this: First, no pay for any elected candidate. Second, pensions for all voters."

On Ice. "Yes," said Alkali Ike, "a couple of cow punches indulged in a very pretty scientific scrap with down at Bad Buck's yesterday."

"It is wonderful how cool those fellows keep under the circumstances," remarked the eastern tourist.

"Yeah, they certainly have to be kept cool, stranger. I believe for some reason or other, their funerals ain't to be for a couple of days yet."

Mistaken Affability. "What made our pirate chief come peep the prison to walk the plank as hastily?" asked the pirate.

"He was one of those cheery and familiar ready-made humorists. The first thing he said when he saw the chief was: 'Oh, you Captain Kidd!'"

His Trade. "A dentist in a way holds life together, doesn't he?"

"In what way?"

"He fills the gaps of time."

SALARIES A SHAME

Striking Pastor Utters Criticism of Clergy's Income.

Advocates State Board of Control Over Establishment of Congregations—Pictures Preachers Often Near Starvation.

Lebanon, Ind.—The manner in which the pastors of many of the churches in rural communities and small towns have to eke out miserable existences on the pittance salaries given them, is a disgrace to Christianity, a reproach to American civilization, and a reflection upon present-day church government, declared Rev. E. T. Greenleaf, who recently resigned the pastorate of the Lebanon circuit of three rural Methodist Protestant churches, because, in view of the present high cost of living, the salary was not sufficient to provide an adequate living for his family, and who, because of the publication of the reasons for his resignation, was left by the conference without an appointment for the ensuing year.

"The business world today does not know the conditions surrounding the financial affairs of the ministry," continued Rev. Mr. Greenleaf. "The church itself covers up the matter because if the truth became known the whole religious institution would be ashamed. The ministers themselves suppress the facts because of their fear that the pulpits of churches would be closed to them in the future or because of a belief that the money-mad world would charge them with being mercenary if they should demand more pay. It is time the facts became known."

"Salaries of ministers in rural communities and small towns, do not grow appreciably larger as the years go by. On the other hand, the preacher's old-time perquisites are passing away. Railroads have withdrawn, or are withdrawing, transportation concessions. The local merchants are gradually abolishing the old-time complimentary methods of selling goods to ministers. All of the other avenues of outside help are becoming more and more clogged, until they will soon be closed entirely. The calls upon the minister's purse are not lessening in number or insistence. He is considered legitimate and easy prey by many persons, members of his own flock included. While all this is true, the cost of living is steadily mounting higher and the salary that several years ago might have been ample to provide a living is no longer sufficient."

"No matter how small his salary, whether it is barely sufficient to keep him and his family from starvation, or not, the minister must wear good clothing and dress his family well, because the pride of the congregation demands it. What a shame it is that this Christian pride does not extend to the point that the parishioners are willing to pay their pastor salary sufficient to enable him to dress as he should without sacrificing his own or his family's physical well being in so doing."

"Ministers belong to the noblest profession on earth. They deserve better treatment than they are receiving. They are not beggars. In the very nature of their profession they cannot be and probably to that fact is due the disposition of churches to pay them the least salary possible. Few churches are paying what they can afford. The tendency is all the other way."

The Rev. Mr. Greenleaf is forty-six years old. His family is his wife, five daughters and one son. He came here from Indianapolis, where he was employed in the city engineer's office as a mechanical and civil engineer draftsman. He thought that by extra work as a draftsman he might earn sufficient funds in addition to his salary to support his family here in comfort. However, the work of ministering to three country churches took too much of his time and the opportunities for doing outside work were few.

Cow Caused Fatal Railroad Wreck. Sterling, La.—Engineer Westbrook was killed, his fireman probably fatally injured, and four passengers seriously hurt when a north-bound Iron Mountain passenger train struck a cow and was derailed.

In Bed Seven Weeks With Terrible Kidney Trouble.

A. Heath, Main St., Camden, O., says: "I was in bed seven weeks with kidney trouble and grew worse in spite of all the doctor could do. Kidney secretions were in terrible condition. It felt as though I was choked with glue and had to be removed with a knife. My own doctor gave me up. I then called in a specialist who said I was beyond recovery. I had lost over 30 pounds and was but a shadow of my former self. I used one box of Doan's Kidney Pills and soon felt better. Continuing, I was cured and have not had the slightest trouble since."

An Exacting Situation. "Doctor," said the nervous man, "is there any way of teaching a person to talk in his sleep?"

"I never heard of any," replied the physician. "How could such an accomplishment be of benefit?"

"It is either that or insomnia for me. My wife is one of the best suffragette speakers before the public. She always rehearses her orations at home, and I've got to say 'hear! hear!' or 'that's the stuff!' at least once every ten minutes."—Washington Star.

Why is it that so many people suffer with lame back? Hamlets, Wards, Sprains, Bruises, Cuts, Burns, etc., there is nothing better.

Let me fall in trying to do something rather than sit still and do nothing.—Cyrus Hamlin.

DOCTORS FAILED TO HELP HER

Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pound, Wis.—"I am glad to announce that I have been cured of dyspepsia and female troubles by using your medicine. I had been troubled with both for about fourteen years and consulted different doctors, but failed to get any relief. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier I can say I am a well woman. I can't find words to express my thanks for the good you medicine has done me. You may publish this if you wish."

—Mrs. HERMAN SMITH, Pound, Wis.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills, and suffering women owe it to themselves to at least give this medicine a trial. Proof is abundant that it has cured thousands of others, and why should it not cure you?

If you want special advice write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for it. It is free and always helpful.

DIRE DISTRESS

It Is Near at Hand to Hundreds of Murray Readers.

Don't neglect and aching back. Backache is the kidney's cry for help.
Neglect hurrying to their aid. Means that urinary troubles follow quickly.
Profit by a Murray citizen's experience.

Mrs. S. J. Pool, Murray, Ky., says: "I had severe pains in the small of my back and when I stepped or lifted, I suffered intensely. My back ached at night and when I arose in the morning I was lame and sore. I tired easily, was troubled by a dull, languid feeling and dizzy spells, during which my sight became blurred, I knew from the unnatural condition of the kidney secretions that my kidneys needed attention. The use of one box of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Dale & Stubblefield's drug store, made a complete cure in my case and I can therefore recommend them highly."

HOPS FOR PILLOW FILLING

Austrian Peasant Woman Recommends Them for Their Efficiency as Sleep-Inducer and Beautifier.

A man who suffered from sleepless nights - looked up to Austria recently what seemed to him to be the best remedy he had ever found. It was nothing more or less than a pillow stuffed with hops. An Austrian peasant woman recommended it not alone as a sleep-producer but as a beautifier as well.
Returning to this country the man bought some New York hops, famous for their beer making qualities, but to his surprise they did not work as well as the hops he had tried abroad. He found out by experiment that hops that made good beer didn't necessarily produce good sleep.
After he had sampled a lot of different kinds of hops he found that by mixing hops grown in Bohemia with hops grown in California and Oregon he got a combination which seemed to answer all purposes in the sleep producing line.
He decided that he had hit it right when he took a couple of pillows he had stuffed with this combination in his office downtown home with him on the elevated. He got in at Rector street carrying the pillow and sat in one of the double seats. Two men and a messenger boy sat with him.
At Fifth street all three were in profound slumber. Several other persons who had been reading newspapers near him were in evident distress in their efforts to keep awake.
Inquiry at different drug stores seemed to indicate that the hop pillow idea was a new one, though hops have long been known to have sleep inducing qualities, as shown particularly in the case of beer. According to those who have tried hop pillows, you get the superior qualities of the hops in this way without breaking any temperance pledges or suffering any harmful effects.

LADY MACBETH LOVES CHOPS
Butcher Attributes Genius of Artist and Actress to Fact They Eat His Meat.
It is not altogether easy to imagine a Lady Macbeth eating chops. Yet her greatest impersonator got her inspiration from them, if one may rely on an altogether delightful authority. On a certain occasion, writes Mr. E. V. Lucas in his recent book, "The Second Post," the painter Hayden paid his butcher, who reciprocated by expressing great admiration for the artist's painting of "Alexander." "Quite alive, sir!" said the butcher. "I am glad you think so," said the artist.
"Yes, sir; but as I have often said to my sister, you could not have painted that picture, sir, if you had not eat my meat, sir."
"Ah, sir, I have a fancy for genius, sir."
"Have you, Mr. Sowerby?"
"Yes, sir. Mrs. Siddons, sir, has eat my meat, sir. Never was such a woman for chops, sir! Ah, sir, she was a wonderful creature!"
"She was, Mr. Sowerby."
"Ah, sir, when she used to act that there character - but Lord, such a head, as I say to my sister - that there woman, sir, that murders a king between 'em!"
"Ah, sir, that's it - Lady Macbeth. I used to get up with the butler behind her carriage when she acted, and I used to see her looking quite wild, and all the people quite frightened. Ah, my lady, says I, if it wasn't for my meat, those moves wouldn't be able to do that!" - Youth's Companion.

Water-Elphants.
The existence of a hitherto unknown beast, the water-elephant, has recently been discovered. No specimen of this animal has as yet been brought to Europe, but its skeleton came into the hands of a collector and not so much as a photograph of it is known to exist. M. Le Petit, an explorer, came across five on the banks of a lake in the Upper Congo. This is James' eighth bone-breaking feat in the eight years of his life and his third within the last five months. In September he broke his right leg in kicking a football. In November, when he was standing in a wagon, the horse moved unexpectedly and jolted him to the wagon bed. The jolt did not hurt him from the wagon, but broke his left arm.

Ruins in Yucatan.
There is in Yucatan a chain of ruins 300 miles long, where, once stood buildings richly decorated and erected with a vast amount of architectural knowledge. The buildings belonged to the stone age, when the remarkable figures in stone were carved with pieces of flint. The people of this age had not the use of either bronze or iron.
